

Beechworth is situated close to the Hume Highway with excellent rail and air links via Albury-Wodonga and Wangaratta enabling easy access from Victorian and New South Wales regional centres as well as the capital cities of Melbourne, Canberra and Sydney.

- 30 minutes off the Hume Freeway, exit at Wangaratta or Wodonga
- 3 hours from Melbourne
- 4.5 hours from Canberra
- 7 hours from Sydney

When arriving from Melbourne, turn right at the roundabout by the landmark Beechworth Post Office. Alternatively, when entering town from Albury/Wodonga, turn left at the roundabout. Continue past the famous Beechworth Bakery, cross the little bridge where Camp Street becomes Albert Road, and Albertines Beechworth is well-signed, on the right just past the impressive double storey, red brick Beechworth Gallery building.
